

THE DANCE OF THE SEXES, by David L. Hatton

(2204 Rene Avenue; Sacramento, CA 95838; (916) 605-9615; email: pastordavidrn@gmail.com)

INTRO: God's ideas about sex... a good idea (Gen 1:27,31a); a life-long affair (Gen 2:24); meant to be shame-free (Gen 2:25)— Sexual purity, kept holy by godly marriage, is God's design for sexual happiness.

I. The Dances of the Sexes –

- A. Social mixing with members of the opposite sex: a lifelong reality (school, job, neighbors, church).
- B. Good dancing (friendly with no sexual bonding) vs. bad dancing (based on sexual selfishness)

II. The Lust Problem: (see cartoon: the lust-related couple are not really happy....)

- A. Guys think physically: sex is loving her, but it's really loving himself! (2 Sam 13:1-19).
- B. Girls think emotionally: sex wins his affection. (not real affection; more likely a path to infection!)
- C. Unholy sexual union (Heb 13:4) forms bonds that pollute a future marriage (1 Cor 6:15-16).

III. Facts About Sexual Attraction:

- A. It's a dynamic interplay of physical, social, emotional, intellectual, & spiritual "chemistry."
- B. You meet those before and after marriage who match your sexual chemistry (some at 50, 75, 99%).
- C. Sexual attraction is natural and normal, but it is not love, although it can plunge you into lust.
- D. Attraction can ignite marital love, but love finds health and growth only in long-term commitment.

IV. God Can Make the Arrangements....

- A. Arranged marriages are an ancient practice, still working today, with great benefits:
 - 1. Protection during puberty: hormones kept in check for future union instead of "the hunt."
 - 2. Escape from hurtful flings: social energy harnessed in building loyalty habits and friendship skills.
 - 3. The experience of age vs. the energy of youth. (Young people have very limited hindsight).
 - 4. They do work, because love is a choice, not a feeling. (Statistics expose our poor track record).
- B. The overwhelming failure in Western culture's sexual experiment of "You're on your own...."
 - 1. Today's parents are ill-equipped to arrange marriages for many reasons....
 - 2. BUT God promises help— Psa 27:10 (NRSV), "If my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will take me up."
 - 3. God wants to work with us (Psa 127:1a; and His plan works (Psa 128:1-4)
 - a. fear the Lord (honor, pay attention to, and trust Him)
 - b. walk in His ways (follow His rules and His principles in the Bible)

V. Learning the Dance-Step of a Lifetime:

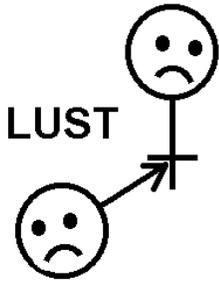

- A. Start learning to dance the right way now:
 - 1. Be loyal to the mate God has picked for you (who is real, alive, and needs your prayers now!).
 - 2. Dance with others' mates with care, protecting them emotionally and physically for their futures.
 - 3. No double-standards: married or single, loyalty to mates, present or future, is the only standard!
 - 4. Break habits that stimulate lust or sexual attraction (2 Tim 2:22) (God is into liberating people!)
- B. Enjoy the freedom of dancing loyally for your future mate:
 - 1. No boy-girlfriend hassles (jealousy, break-ups, crises in self-image); enjoy just being friends.
 - 2. Energy lost on drawing sexual attention redirected to build communication and friendship skills.
 - 3. No pressure to hunt for a mate, so use your sexual energy to discover your "self" in God's will.
- C. "But how do I find my future mate?!?" Submit to Jesus as Lord, trust His leading, and dance right:
 - 1. You won't know for sure who your mate is (even on your wedding day) until you leave the altar.
 - 2. He/she may not even be 60% on the attraction scale (but marital life is a 100% commitment!)
 - 3. Make sure you marry your best friend (you get there by talking, not by stalking; by spiritual communion, not by sexual union; by using your head, not by going to bed!)
 - 4. Warning signs of fooling yourself: "She/he can make me happy..." or "I will change him/her..."

CONCLUSION: (see cartoon: God's plan is for sexual expression under the Cross of Christ...)

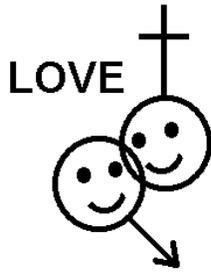

–"But I've already been hurt by dirty dancing" (the name Jesus means "Jehovah delivers, Jehovah heals").

–Surrender to God for His Holy Spirit to bring deliverance, healing, and God's will in a mate:

freedom— John 8:34,36; healing— Isa 61:1; guidance— Psa 32:8. Then trust Him to do it!!

Sexual relationships outside God's will and plan for us, with built-in consequences of long-term unhappiness from our disobedience.

Marriage as God's plan for a life-long sexual expression, with Christ ruling over the relationship and sex under His protection and Lordship.

LOVE OR LUST

There ticks a human clock
 Of hormones that unlock
 When youth has come of age
 To write the marriage page.
 But pride and lust can team
 To smash the wedding dream
 By feigning tender care
 To rape the pleasures there.
 She merely wants his arms;
 He has to drink her charms.
 Affection's her desire;
 He's got to quench the fire!
 Hot passion wastes what's real:
 It grabs what it can feel.
 But love is on alert
 To guard a friend from hurt.
 The promises of lust
 A fool alone will trust:
 While lust must seize the bed,
 True love can wait to wed.

-- David L. Hatton 9/21/91

* * * * *

SEX

It's such a fragile gift of God
 Demanding love's security,
 A life-long delicate embrace,
 For safe and holy happiness.

When you tear off the pleasant wrap
 Before those sacred, solemn vows,
 You may become destructive thieves
 Of gifts God meant for someone else.

-- David L. Hatton, 9/8/91

PORNOGRAPHY

A poet and pornographer were arguing out loud
 Upon a city street where their debate had drawn a crowd.
 But fed on mocking satire from the smut-shop marketeer,
 The gathering was led to chide the poet's "prudish" fear.

A screaming female cry rang out to cheer the rights of porn:
 "My naked beauty's mine to sell! Free speech!" she yelled with scorn.
 But then an aging prostitute brought silence with her shout:
 "My beauty's gone! Let's have free speech, and hear the poet out!"

Conviction filled the poet's voice: "I stand for womanhood!
 Who markets nudity for lust, no beauty understood!
 Who sold her flesh as slop to fill the feeding troughs of swine,
 Was swindled of her value, doesn't know her worth, or mine!

"Our dignity as humans teach the secrecy of love.
 The privacy of mating is a treasure from above.
 But make the sacred common, and you lace the truth with lies:
 Love's intimacy wasn't meant for wanton public eyes!

"I welcome mothers' lovely breasts exposed to nurse their young!
 Bring on bare photographs of birth! Its beauties I have sung!
 Display a sculpted portrait of your wife, a gorgeous nude,
 But strip her for a show of sex, and you're a fool, and lewd!

"No healthy woman really wants the hurt that lust inspires,
 Nor can a spouse compete against a fantasy's desires.
 Just analyze the rapist's diet: what's his daily fare?
 Enticing looks that porno-pimps pay unclad girls to wear!

"The question's not of freedom, nor is it of rights denied.
 We've sold our children's safety, while our family honor died.
 An endless carnal thirst is gushing from pornography
 To drown the due respect that each man owes womanity.

"Unclothe the youthful nude they pay to twist the gawker's mind:
 Below the skin of powdered breasts and spreading legs you'll find
 A misled sister, daughter, cousin, mother, niece or wife
 Who's auctioned by a trade that drains her image of its life.

"Beneath the painted hide they hire to pose for filthy fame,
 A woman's raped of self-esteem and wrapped in sinful shame.
 But sons who buy their sister's theft have been the most untrue:
 They fail to guard the woman's worth that manhood calls them to!"

The prostitute began to clap . . . a teacher joined nearby,
 Some older men took off their caps . . . two girls began to cry.
 One mother lifted up her blouse to sing while baby nursed.
 But most were very quiet as the gathering dispersed.

-- David L. Hatton, 5/29/96 (revised, 12/22/04)